Receive free health care in Clearwater and Pinellas County

Last year; almost 8 million people received free health care from clinics last year. One option in Florida is the Clearwater Free Clinic, which offers medical services for more and more patients who otherwise would not be able to afford to pay for health insurance and medical bills. Just this year, almost 60 percent more new patients have visited the Clearwater Free Clinic-(727) 447 -3041. The health care provided is top notch. There is a highly trained team of physicians, pharmacists, nurse practitioners, registered nurses, physical therapists, and even office clerks and staff who donate thousands of hours of their personal time to provide the best medical services each and every year. They also partner with local organizations and hospitals, such as Mease Hospitals and Morton Plant who donate goods and services to the free clinic. Find other free health care resources. To be eligible for aid, the medical care is made available to both uninsured children and adults who live in Pinellas County and Clearwater, and who are not eligible for other government programs and if they cannot afford to pay for their own private medical care. The vast majority of the patients and people seeking help from the Clearwater Free Health Care Clinic are hardworking people who are struggling with the recent economic woes and who now have with limited incomes or low paying jobs. They mostly work, yet the low income they make will exclude them from receiving state or federal government assisted programs yet the income they have is not high enough to pay for insurance or private healthcare. Other options and community clinics in the area include

- St. Petersburg Free Clinic (727) 327-0333)
- Clearwater based La Clinica Guadalupeana which provides medical care for the low income, homeless, and indigent in the community. (727) 461-7730

RESIDENT ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

The City of Largo wants to help Largo individuals and families who have fallen behind on housing and utility bills due to impacts of COVID-19. Largo's Resident Assistance Program is available to residents as a second line of assistance behind Countywide programs. Its intent is to help Largo families who suffered a loss in income from COVID-19 furloughs, lay-offs, reduced hours, or company closings with mortgage or rent payments and utility costs.

Below you can find more information on pre-qualification information, how to submit an application online and documentation needed when you apply.

BEFORE SUBMITTING AN APPLICATION:

- Determine if you pre-qualify for the Pinellas CARES Financial Assistance or Juvenile Welfare Board Family Services Initiative (FSI) programs by visiting 211TampaBay.org, calling 2-1-1 or texting "COVIDCARES" to 898211
- If you do not meet the requirements for these programs, or do qualify but need additional help, you can proceed with the Largo Resident Assistance Program.
- If you do not have internet access or need additional help, please call Largo Housing Services at 727-586-7453 to prequalify over the phone.

Emergency Assistance for Individuals & Families

The city of Clearwater's Rental, Mortgage and Utility Assistance program supports eligible individuals and families who have lost their jobs or significant income due to COVID-19 with one-time assistance paying overdue rent, mortgage and utility bills for up to three months. The delinquencies must be for April 2020 and beyond. Payments will be disbursed directly to the utility, landlord, mortgage holder or other eligible agency to which the individual bills are due.

Do you qualify?

You qualify if you answer yes to all four questions:

1. Did you lose your job or a portion of income as a direct result of the COVID-19 pandemic? For example, your workplace shut down under state or local orders. You will be required to provide documentation. Examples: pay stubs, a letter from employer, proof of employer business closure.

2. During the month when you apply, does your household income qualify?

HOUSEHOLD SIZE	1	2	3	4
MINIMUM ANNUAL INCOME	$25,520	$34,480	$43,440	$52,400
MAXIMUM ANNUAL INCOME	$39,400	$45,000	$50,650	$56,250

3. Do you have less than $4000 in liquid assets? Liquid assets are cash, savings and checking.

4. Are you a resident of the city of Clearwater? You must live within the incorporated limits of the city of Clearwater. You can check your tax district by entering your address by visiting the Pinellas County Property Appraiser website. Proof of residency may include a driver's license or utility bill with your qualifying address. CLICK HERE to view instructions to confirm if you are a resident of the city limits of Clearwater.

You can only apply for assistance to cover COVID-19-related costs that have not already been paid for by insurance or by another federal program. The delinquencies must be for April 2020 and beyond.

Applicants eligible for mortgage assistance will be referred to a foreclosure counseling agency, at no cost to the applicant, prior to funds being disbursed.

City of Clearwater, Municipal Services Building, 100 S Myrtle Avenue, Clearwater FL 33756

There are a limited amount of Emergency Housing Vouchers available. Below are a few of the agencies you may contact, if you are in a situation, you need emergency housing.
